

2020 SUMMARY REPORT

ONE COMPANY, ONE VOICE.

PAC MEMBERS ARE ENERGY INFLUENCERS.

Every day, each one of us has the power to inform, persuade and teach lawmakers about the energy industry through the efforts of our employee political action committees, or PACs. Our company is subject to vast amounts of legislative initiatives and regulatory oversight at the state and national levels. Our PAC gives us a stronger voice to educate elected officials on these legislative issues that matter to us. Without this education, even well-intentioned policies can have a negative impact on our ability to serve our customers and the sustainability of our communities and industry. Our PACs help us explain our position, build relationships, and strengthen our collective voice. PACs are a legal and transparent form of engaging in the political process, and at Vistra, they're a vital component of supporting sound policy for our bright future.
